

Freeport PUBLIC SCHOOLS Pride

www.freeportschools.org

POINTS OF PRIDE

April 2015

ACADEMICS

- Reporters for Freeport High School's literary magazine, Flashings, competed in the Adelphi University 2015 Press Day, featuring the Quill Awards. Senior Kayla King-Summer placed third for Best Freelance Work for her article "Swag Master K Takes on D.C.," while sophomore Ashley Dominguez-Bonilla placed third for Best Feature Article for her piece "Ripples of Hope Change the World."
- District elementary schools hosted open house exhibits, during which students and staff provided information about each building to prospective parents and families.
- Bayview Avenue kicked off its annual Math-A-Thon program with a performance of the musical "Stone Soup," which highlighted Common Core principles in math and English language arts.
- Freeport High School is set to host the 11th annual Science Fair on April 24.
- Third-graders at Archer Street participated in a countywide math contest sponsored by Sumdog.com. During their morning technology enrichment club, the students competed with other schools to correctly answer math questions.

ATHLETICS

- The rifle, girls swimming and girls indoor track teams were named Scholar/Athlete Teams by the New York State Public High School Athletic Association.
- Student-athletes earned 50 winter postseason honors.

THE ARTS

- Freeport High School Select Chorale standouts Kristopher Saint-Louis and Jasmine Euell performed at the Biennial Eastern Division Conference in Rhode Island after being selected as All-Eastern by the National Association for Music Education.
- Atkinson School fifth-graders Breanna Igneri, Jillian Igneri, Nicholas Quintanilla and Natalia Vega and sixth-graders Linton Brown, Tasheena Evans, Jaiden Plummer and Natalia Warren participated in the National PTA Reflections Art Contest.
- The district's jazz festival will be held at Freeport High School on April 30.

Freeport

PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Pride

www.freeportschools.org

ALTRUISM

- Archer Street's Enrichment for Leaders morning program participated in the fourth annual Legislative Pet Drive to benefit Baxter's Pet Pantry, operated by Long Island Cares. Students created posters to display around the building and collected more than eight cases of food and pet supplies for the organization.